

BARBARA TOUGH

August 17, 1926

Mrs. Hall's Chamber Maid and Seamstress, September, 1922.

TESTIFIED (pages 469 et seq.):

Now employed at 156 Livingston Avenue, New Brunswick
(by Mrs. Hall's aunt Mrs. Murray (?) (469)

Worked for Mrs. Hall seven years (469)

Thursday, September 14, was Barbara's day out and she did not return to the Hall house until about 10 o'clock (469-70)

Everything looked as usual. There were lights in the library, the lower hall and back hall and the kitchen (470).

Barbara put out the kitchen light and went to bed (470).

Had charge of Dr. Hall's upstairs study and always cleaned it. Never looked in drawers or cupboards or private papers.
Never saw any tin dispatch box. (471)

On Friday morning September 15 dusted study and went down to kitchen (471).

Louise Geist told Barbara Dr. Hall had not been home all night and that Mrs. Hall did not know where he was and was crying (471).

Barbara went upstairs, dusted sewing rooms, and came down to breakfast. Heard no talk or telephone calls but could not hear the phone distinctly from kitchen (471-a).

Did not see Mrs. Hall until about 9 o'clock when, as Barbara was going to make Willie's bed, Mrs. Hall came upstairs and
